

NEW ENGLAND BRIDGE MURAL

Hello, my name is Christina Ure and I am a Brighton based artist. I have been commissioned to produce a mural at the base of the east entrance to New England Bridge...and I need your help.

The mural is on the theme of native wild flowers and I would like to use artworks created by local residents in the piece, adult's artwork as well as children's.

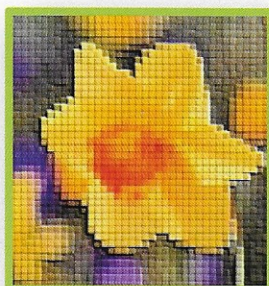

Can you and/or your children please draw / paint / collage me one (or more) of the flowers shown on the back of this sheet of paper.

No bigger than this piece of paper, but it can be smaller.

I will return all artwork wherever possible (with your name on the back).

When you have completed the artwork, please bring it to School / Church and I will collect all submissions at lunchtime on Friday the 20th March.

The mural will be created as a huge 'Painting by numbers' pixelated image and there will be a 'Community Painting Day' provisionally booked for Wednesday 29th April. (TBC). Please come along 😊

Please remember the cut off day for art contributions is FRIDAY 20th March

THANK YOU FOR TAKING PART 😊

DANDILION / PRIMROSE/ NATIVE DAFFODIL /BUTTERCUP/ DAISY / WILD POPPY /ENGLISH BLUEBELL You can, of course, use other images of these flowers but please remember to use native wild flowers.☺
