

TDG

Hello and welcome to the TDG newsheet!

We have a chat every Sunday on Zoom at 2.30pm.

If you are aged 12 or over and would like to join in with us just ask your parent or carer to email me at sarah@stlukesonline.co.uk and I'll send you an invite!

LAST SUNDAY we discussed The Parable of the Sower - what was meant by the seeds landing on the different types of soil and how that affected how they grew. We related this to our own lives and saw it in two different ways; either the seed was the Word of God being received differently by different people, or we saw the seed as people and how landing on the fertile soil is the same as hearing the Word of God. It's always great to discuss how a parable speaks to us!

We also listened to The Rocket Summer – “Morning Light”

This week's featured band is Pentatonix. Whilst not doing Christian songs – they do acapella covers of other hits – bass singer Matt Sallee is a committed Christian and often talks about his faith. In an interview with The Christian Post in September 2019, about singing in a secular industry, he said this:

“I knew God would use me...and when God's hand is on something, it can't fall.”

Pentatonix: "The Sound of Silence"

THIS SUNDAY we'll be discussing The Parable of the Wheat and the Weeds – Matthew 13:24-30 and 36-43. What is it telling us about how we view other people...?

Thought for the Week

"The point isn't to be praised, it's to point people to Him. With that mindset always, I enjoy what's happening and I get to experience these incredible things while knowing there's a greater purpose."

Matt Sallee

HAVE A GREAT WEEK!
