

TDG

Hello and welcome to the TDG newsheet!
We have a chat every Sunday on Zoom at 2.30pm.
If you are aged 12 or over and would like to join in with us just ask your parent or carer to email me at sarah@stlukesonline.co.uk and I'll send you an invite!

LAST SUNDAY we discussed The Parable of the Wheat and the Weeds and the ways this could be interpreted. We focused on why the farmer did not want the servant pulling the weeds up until both the wheat and the weeds were fully grown. One interesting idea shared was that the weeds could perhaps change as they grew? We also thought that it's not our place to judge people, but God's. A great discussion with some original thoughts and ideas!

We listened to Pentatonix singing "The Sound of Silence". They do acapella covers of other hits and bass singer Matt Sallee is a committed Christian who often talks about his faith.

THIS SUNDAY we'll be discussing The Parables of the Mustard Seed and the Yeast - Matthew 13: 31-33.

<sup>31</sup> He told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a man took and planted in his field. <sup>32</sup> Though it is the smallest of all seeds, yet when it grows, it is the largest of garden plants and becomes a tree, so that the birds come and perch in its branches."

<sup>33</sup> He told them still another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast that a woman took and mixed into about sixty pounds of flour until it worked all through the dough."

What do these parables mean for all of us? What do they say to YOU?

Thought for the Week

"I struggled with insecurity because I was trying to find my security in things. But when I began serving God with all my heart, my security was in Him."

— Jeremy Camp, I Still Believe

HAVE A GREAT WEEK!
