Hello and welcome to the TDG newsheet!
We have a chat every Sunday on Zoom at 2.30pm.
If you are aged 12 or over and would like to join in with us just ask your parent or carer to email me at sarah@stlukesonline.co.uk and I'll send you an invite!

LAST SUNDAY we discussed trusting in God when we are weary or need help, and listened to this song, “Trust in You”, by Lauren Daigle:

We felt the lyrics

“When you don't give the answers and I cry out to you”

and

“When you don't part the waters I wish I could walk through”

were especially poignant, and that maybe they mean that God doesn't always answer our prayers in the way we would expect or want – but that He has a bigger picture in mind. Sometimes it's easier to accept that than others!

Can you think of a time when you may have turned to God for help or comfort? And a time when you prayed for something but it wasn't answered as you had hoped? Was it for the best...?

This Sunday, 5th July, we'll be chatting about this song from Christian band Rend Collective – “Live Alive”

Taken from Matthew 10: 40-42 (The Message)

“This is a large work I’ve called you into, but don’t be overwhelmed by it. It’s best to start small. Give a cool cup of water to someone who is thirsty, for instance. The smallest act of giving or receiving makes you a true apprentice. You won’t lose out on a thing.”

HAVE A GREAT WEEK!
